

Rioters at Princeton
Special to The New York Times.

PRINCETON, N. J., May 18—Princeton University's faculty committee on discipline will meet Friday to investigate a mild uprising by 1,000 students late last night. A university official said the committee would question some of the forty undergraduates whose names were taken during the riot. It started when the song "Rock Around the Clock," from the movie "The Blackboard Jungle," blared from phonographs on the campus.

The New York Times

Published: May 19, 1955

Copyright © The New York Times